NOTICE TO INDIVIDUAL CONSUMER DEBTOR(S)

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE THAT as a consumer debtor, you are advised, pursuant to the provisions of 11 U.S.C. Section 342(b), prior to commencement of your case that you may proceed under any one of the following chapters of Title 11, United States Code:

Chapter 13

Liquidation, or Reorganization, or Family farmer, or Repayment of all or part of the debts of an individual with regular income

By filing a petition in bankruptcy, you have invoked the jurisdiction of a United States Court. If you do not appear as ordered you may either be arrested and conveyed to court by a United States Marshal, or your case dismissed and discharge in bankruptcy denied.

All of your property is now under the exclusive control of the United States Bankruptcy Court. It is your duty to keep and preserve that property and be accountable to the proper court officials.

The law requires that you attend and submit to an examination under oath concerning the conduct of your affairs, the cause of your bankruptcy, your transaction with creditors and other persons, the amount, kind and whereabouts of your property and possessions, and all other matters which may affect the administration and settlement of your estate or the granting of your discharge.

You are not to dispose of any property, including money, or allow any creditors to take such property without the written authority of the Court. The right of your secured creditors will be determined by the court, and no creditors now have the right to possess any property upon which they claim to have a lien or interest.

Should you change your address, be sure to keep the court informed, in writing, of your correct address up until the time your case is closed.

If you need information or advice as to your rights and obligations under the law, contact your attorney. The court cannot give you legal advice.
